

CAMEL — CARAVAN LEADER
OR CAMEL DRIVER

Would you like to work with camels? If you had lived in the land of Jesus, you could be a camel driver. The job of camel driver would be something like owning a trucking company today. The camel driver agreed to deliver goods from one place to another. He used a caravan of camels to deliver the goods. Sometimes the camel driver also took passengers. The camel driver had to take care of the camels, the passengers, and the goods he was carrying.

A camel driver would need to be a good traveler. He must know all about camels. He had to know how to get a grumpy camel to do his work.

Besides this, a camel driver would need to be very honest and careful. Sometimes the camels carried goods that were very costly. It was important that the load arrived safely.

The camel driver knew he had two enemies along the way. His enemies were wild animals and thieves. A camel driver

TURN CARD OVER

~~must be brave and wise.~~ Sometimes a number of caravans travelled together. This made it safer.

The camel driver would have to ride a donkey. He would ride at the front of his string of camels.

Do you know that Mohammed was a camel driver when he was a young man? Later he started a religion called Mohammedanism. Many people are Mohammedans in the land of Israel and in the neighboring lands. It is hard to try to win these people to Christ. Do you know any missionaries to the Mohammedans?
