

HAIR OF MEN OF ISRAEL

(H)

Shepherds let their hair grow very thick and long.

In the Old Testament the people loved long hair. The people thought David's son, Absalom, was very beautiful because his hair was very thick and long. (See II Samuel 14:25-26)

Absalom was so proud of his hair that this caused his death. (II Samuel 18:9)

In the New Testament time the men cut their hair short. (See I Corinthians 11:14)

The hair was usually black. Sometimes it was red. Old men had white hair.

Men let their hair grow on their face. Older men had long beards.
